Adelaida's seven distinct family owned vineyards lie in the hillside terrain of Westside Paso Robles, 14 miles from the Pacific Coast. Ranging from 1500 – 2000 feet in elevation these low yielding vines are challenged by chalky limestone soils, afternoon blasts of cool marine air, and a diurnal temperature swing of 40-45 degrees.

This year's Nonconformist is a nontraditional "Paso blend" combining mostly Rhône varietals and zinfandel. While the wine is mainly influenced by the trio of grenache, mourvèdre and syrah, the outlier zinfandel makes its presence known with its contribution of high toned red berry qualities to the mid-palate. Blends like this are the ultimate winemaker's statement, showing the "alchemy" of combining disparate grapes that when joined take the individual flavors to a new level. A bit of aeration gives rise to a scent of fresh cut roses and a background of red fruit. The brightness and crisp texture make a mouthwatering match for mealtime.

All grapes were handled separately, de-stemmed on arrival, fermented on indigenous yeast and aged 19 months, mostly in neutral French oak barrels. Ideal for pairing with tapas and small plates, the 2012 Nonconformist can be enjoyed now through 2017.
