Adelaida's organically-certified estate vineyards are located in the coastal-influenced Santa Lucia Mountain Range on the west side of the Paso Robles AVA. Situated on steep hillsides, these sites lie within the nested Adelaida and Willow Creek Districts, in the northwest corner of the wine region. With elevations ranging from (1400 - 2050 ft), limestone subsoils, and extreme diurnal temperature swings, averaging 45 degrees, Adelaida produces wines with distinct expressions of their site.

The winter of 2023-2024 was cool, with 25.39 inches of rainfall, about average. Spring continued this trend, as Chardonnay budbreak occurred in the third week of March. The rain and cool temperatures kept the soils cool and provided enough water. From July 2 to October 7, we had 38 days over 100°F, compared to an average of 10 days. Our clay and limestone soils, along with good cover crops and careful farming, helped the vines survive the heat. The summer of 2024 was California's hottest in 130 years.

The 2024 Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is a classic expression of mountain vineyards, balancing bold structure with a vibrant, distinctly savory edge. The wine opens with an inviting, highly expressive nose of Santa Rosa plum, woven in with notes of unroasted coffee bean and crushed graphite. On the palate, energetic flavors of black cherry and tart rhubarb are framed by a classic, herbaceous hint of green olive. Supported by rounded tannins and that signature Adelaida finish, this vintage showcases elegant tension and dynamic natural acidity from start to finish.
