The majority of the wine is composed of Syrah and Mourvedre, bringing notes of boysenberry, blueberry, and sagebrush to the glass. Petite Sirah brings deep purples to the wine's appearance and contributes aromas of chocolate and black pepper to the wine's flavor. The small portion of Cinsaut and Grenache lifts the floral aromatics and brings bright red-fruit flavor and a wine of balance. The final component, Touriga Nacional, adds aromatics of violet, mint, and cedar while also layering in substantial tannin to bolster the structure of the wine. Enjoy now through 2028
